

5 Podcasts and YouTube Channels Worth Taking on Vacation

Stay in touch with the language—even while lounging under a palm tree 🌴

Holidays are the perfect time to... relax and learn with pleasure! No need to pack a textbook—just grab your phone and headphones.

Here are our recommended podcasts and YouTube channels that blend fun with learning—perfect for summer:

1. Easy English (YouTube)

Real-life English! Short conversations from the streets of London and other cities, with subtitles and language commentary. Great for getting used to natural language and different accents.

 Easy English – YouTube

2. Luke's English Podcast

A teacher with British humor and tons of practical knowledge—from vocabulary to culture. Perfect for a morning coffee or a stroll to the beach.

 Luke's English Podcast

3. Speak English with Vanessa (YouTube)

Very accessible videos about everyday English. Vanessa explains idioms, phrases, and common mistakes—with a smile and lots of clarity.

 Speak English with Vanessa – YouTube

4. The English We Speak (BBC Learning English)

Short episodes (about 3 minutes) — each one focuses on an idiom or slang expression. Perfect for when you've just got a moment—like waiting in line for ice cream.

 The English We Speak

5. 6 Minute English (BBC)

Mini-lessons on interesting topics—from ecology to artificial intelligence—with useful vocabulary and dialogue. A fun option for train rides or flights.

 6 Minute English